Watch and listen carefully and see how the Qu'ran is treated.

The Qur'an is the holy book for Muslims. The Angel Jibril revealed the word of God to Muhammad, who is the last and final prophet, in 30 sulas.

Ways to treat the Qu'ran

Never put the Qu'ran on the floor

Muslims wash their hands before touching it.

It is kept on a stand.

It is kept on a high shelf, above other books

A cloth is wrapped around it.

- Listen to The Story Of The Angry Woman
- What is the message of this story?
- Click on the next slide to find out more.....

The message is to be kind and helpful.

- The prophet Muhammad helped the old woman, even though she was angry with him. It is important for Muslims to help others, even someone who has been unkind to them.
- Your TASK is to write a paragraph about how you have been kind and helpful during lockdown. Think about how you have been kind to your family, neighbours, NHS workers and others. You can illustrate this too.
- Have you watched Mr Parr's Monday assembly on kindness yet? Scroll down to the bottom of the Workspace page to watch it.
- Are you filling in your Kindness Calendar? Watch the assembly to find out more.....
- Email your teacher with your work – we would love to see your acts of kindness!
